TO OUR VALUED CUSTOMERS AND FELLOW TAXIDERMISTS

It is with great appreciation and gratitude for your continued patronage and interest in my ever growing company that I present, JOHN DAVID ELLZEY'S SQUIRREL FORMS CATALOG #7.

After over 30 years of researching, sculpturing, and molding squirrels of many varieties in size and species, I feel I have captured the most realistic and "true to life" positions for mounting squirrels. As always, your interest and input is greatly appreciated and welcomed.

The staff at Ellzey's is always ready and willing to help with any request or questions you may have. Just give us a call and we will help to fit your squirrel with the mannikin that will create a mount that your customer will be in awe of when they pick up their prized trophy.

Thank you for choosing "True-to-Life Squirrel Forms by Ellzey", and as always, wishing you much success and prosperity in all your squirrel mounting endeavors.

Your Friend in Taxidermy,

John David Ellzey, Sr.
"The Squirrel Man"

HOW TO MEASURE

A. Length: Measure from tip of nose to base of tail.

B. Girth: Measure the diameter of the mid-section.

Customers: When shipping your squirrels, please keep in mind that UPS and Fed-Ex do not deliver on weekends. If at all possible, please ship your squirrels at the beginning of the work week. Also, the weather in Louisiana is typically HOT, so shorter shipping times will ensure me receiving your squirrels in good condition.

PLEASE NOTE: The novelty squirrel forms do not come in a variety of sizes. I will add additional sizes as the demand for them increases. The novelty forms can be used in positions other than the ones listed above. For example, the "High 5" form can be used for a squirrel reaching for an acorn in a tree.
